

Dear Parishioners,

Who, in the bible, was the first Gentile to convert to the Catholic faith? The answer is found in today's second reading; his name is Cornelius. St. Peter begins his preparation of Cornelius by showing how John the Baptist, the forerunner of Jesus, preached and baptized, a process our Lord would continue. Just as Jesus himself was baptized and anointed by the Holy Spirit, so too, must Cornelius and ourselves.

Some of our protestant brothers and sisters emphasize taking Jesus as our personal Lord and savior. While we Catholics should do this, nowhere does the bible tell us to do this. It does tell us how important the sacrament of baptism is, "unless you are born of water and the Holy Spirit, you cannot enter the kingdom of God," Jesus tells us in John's gospel.

However, baptism isn't the final answer. We have to live out our baptismal promises, dying to sin and selfishness, if we want to share in the Lord's risen glory at the end of our lives. That is the vocation of every Catholic. May we all try with God's grace to do just that.

Fr. Carl

OH! If only we can say, when next year comes, that this year has been all God's!

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Raymond of Penyfort, Priest

Feast day – January 7

St. Raymond of Penyfort (1175-1275) was a lawyer and a canonist. He joined the Dominicans at age 47. Because of his talents which were already known, he was called to Rome by Pope Gregory IX to be his confessor. He was entrusted with the task of continuing to collect and organize church laws. In this respect he is an important source for what later became the Code of Canon Law in 1917.

St. Raymond was an outstanding preacher who taught a respect for law, which he saw as a safeguard for the rights and freedom of all, and as a means to promote the common good. Law is a principle of freedom, and St. Raymond subscribed to the teaching that “He who hates the law is without wisdom, and is tossed about like a boat in a storm.” (Sirach 33:2).

In our day the II Vatican Council addressed this issue in the Declaration on Religious Liberty. In it, the Council expressed an intent “to develop the teaching of recent popes on the inviolable rights of the human person and on the constitutional order of society.” (no. 1). The Council teaches, from a tradition that goes back to St. Raymond, the law must give “effective constitutional protection” so that “man’s rights and duties ... be protected.” (no. 15).

St. Raymond was also a compassionate spiritual guide and wrote an influential handbook for confessors that dealt with the sacrament of penance and provided some practical guidance. Since he was a capable administrator, he was appointed Archbishop of Tarragona, Spain, but because of illness he was permitted to decline the appointment. Two years later at age 63 he was elected to succeed St. Dominic as Master General of the Dominicans, and directed the reorganization of the order’s constitutions. He resigned at age 65, and for the next 35 years of his life he devoted himself to preaching and to the conversion of the Moors and their former slaves in Spain. He died in his 100th year, in 1275.

St. Raymond was blessed with the “gift of compassion in his ministry to sinners,” and today we ask his prayers “to free us from the slavery of sin,” and for his help “to love and serve (God) in freedom.” (ibid).

NCEON During the month of December, our Parish and School donated 218 grocery bags of food to NCEON! Our generous donations have proven to be one of our best months on record. This is also our highest annual number of Groceries donated since we have been keeping records with Parish and School donating 1571 bags of food for 2009. Thank you for your consistent faithfulness and caring for those in need.

The folks at NCEON are highly respected for their well managed work to serve those in need and send us their sincere thanks for our support. As you can imagine, because of the harsh economic times, the need continues to be great.

Certainly you, the people of Saint Jane Frances, are responding to Jesus and His call for us to share with one another. The generosity of our church to Loaves and Fishes is exceptional, and we have really made a difference! Thank you again!

A Blessed and Happy New Year to all of you!

Sincerely,

Deacon Robert

THE ARCHBISHOP'S ANNUAL APPEAL

WHEN I CALLED, YOU ANSWERED ME...
(PSALM 138:3)

The Archbishop's Annual Appeal is now underway. Many of our parishioners have received a mailing from Archbishop O'Brien. He has asked that you make a pledge to the 2010 Archbishop's Annual Appeal.

The Appeal not only funds operations of the Archdiocese, it funds services that are of great help to the ministries here in our parish.

This year, the theme of the Appeal is, "When I called, you answered me." Our contributions to our parish and our Archdiocese serve as a sign of our gratitude not only for God's answers to our prayers, but also as a sign of our recognition that all that we are and all that we have are gifts given to us by God.

Your gift will enable archdiocesan support of ministry, education, and service that touch thousands of lives not only in our Archdiocese but throughout the world.

Our parish receives 25% of each dollar contributed up to our goal of $79,600. Then, we receive 50% of the additional funds received. This year, we will commit our parish rebates to Debt Reduction.

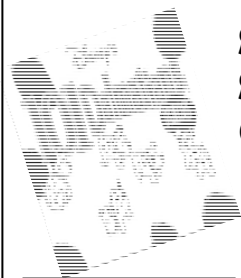

Please answer the Archbishop's request and make a generous pledge. All pledges can be billed in ten monthly installments. Thank you in advance for your support.
